

DAILY DEMOCRAT

BENNETT'S ALMANAC.

APRIL	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
Sun	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
Mo	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	1
Tu	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	1	2
We	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	1	2	3
Th	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	1	2	3	4
Fr	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	1	2	3	4	5
Sa	26	27	28	29	30	31	1	2	3	4	5	6
Su	27	28	29	30	31	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

RIVER AND WEATHER.

The weather was warm yesterday, but pleasant. The river is rising, with 7 feet water in the channel.

PRENTISS, April 23.—The weather is fine.

There are ten feet of water in the channel falling. The weather is clear and warm.

CINCINNATI, April 23.—The weather is falling. The weather is clear and warm.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—The weather is fine.

All transients, advertisements in the Democrat must be paid for INEVITABLY IN ADVANCE. This is a rule that must be strictly observed.

The election for magistrate and constable is close at hand. Are the candidates ready?

Several negroes were arrested yesterday for driving their drays faster than a walk.

Mrs. Jean Dean Haynes, is still the bright particular star, at the theatre.

Advertisement, of single houses, to say, for sale, at the stable of T. B. Boyce, corner of Second and Jefferson streets.

The Louisiana paper continues to complain of the crops. Thousands of cattle had died from hunger and thirst.

Mr. Parmenter says there must be some between poets and pullets, for they are both always chanting their lays.

We direct the attention of readers generally, to the card of J. S. Hughes, who relates a most astonishing cure effected by the use of Hampton's Tincture and Ointment.

The Rev. Isaac Lesser, of Philadelphia, will give a lecture this evening, at half past seven, in the Jewish Synagogue, on Fourth street.

Subscribers to the DEMOCRAT, residing on Center street, between Green and Walnut, desire us to call the attention of the street inspector to the sticky condition of the street in that locality.

An old farmer whose son had died, was visited by a neighbor who began to console him on his loss. "My loss is not such thing—it's a man's loss—he was of age." That farmer was a philosopher.

UP THE RIVER.—The Cincinnati Columbian, of yesterday, says:

The river has risen, since Saturday evening, about two inches, and is still gradually rising. At the latest account, the river was rising at a rate of one-half inch per hour. The water was ready for steamers, while the pilot steered her for shore. But, she turned so rapidly, that there was no hope of extricating her. The pilot escaped in an dingy, and all the passengers, with one exception, had safely, losing, however, everything except the clothes on their persons, as she buried in less than a quarter of an hour to the water's edge. The books, papers, and the safe containing $10,000, were lost.

The Crystal Palace, which had just passed between Peterburg andsville. He was asleep in the woods, and had with him a quantity of good clothing and some books. It was intelligent, hairy, set, and of good address. He was supposed to be a fugitive, and made his escape to the Kox at St. Louis free of charge. He did not return with his master. His left clothing, however, was found in the Kox, and he was captured with his master, and took him to New York, leaving his young wife behind a poor, old, ill-fated, and her sad and sorrowful companion. L.—[Lancaster Sentinel, 26d.].

A negro man was arrested between Peterburg andsville. He was asleep in the woods, and had with him a quantity of good clothing and some books. It was intelligent, hairy, set, and of good address. He was supposed to be a fugitive, and made his escape to the Kox at St. Louis free of charge. He did not return with his master. His left clothing, however, was found in the Kox, and he was captured with his master, and took him to New York, leaving his young wife behind a poor, old, ill-fated, and her sad and sorrowful companion. L.—[Lancaster Sentinel, 26d.].

The Crystal Palace, which had just passed between Peterburg andsville. He was asleep in the woods, and had with him a quantity of good clothing and some books. It was intelligent, hairy, set, and of good address. He was supposed to be a fugitive, and made his escape to the Kox at St. Louis free of charge. He did not return with his master. His left clothing, however, was found in the Kox, and he was captured with his master, and took him to New York, leaving his young wife behind a poor, old, ill-fated, and her sad and sorrowful companion. L.—[Lancaster Sentinel, 26d.].

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15th, received last evening, are filled with descriptions of the race between Lexington and Louisville. As we have already given the particulars of the race, we make no haste to repeat them.

THE RACE HORSE LIKELIHOOD.—The New Orleans paper of the 15

